

21 October 1959

Reverend Frederick B. Harris

Washington, D.C.

Dear Dr. Harris:

I hope that you will forgive me for pursuing you during your vacation in order to ask you to honor us by participating in the ceremony at which the President will lay the cornerstone for the new Central Intelligence Agency building at Langley, Virginia, at 11:30 a.m. on Tuesday, 3 November 1959. The urgency was necessary so that we could get our program to the printer and in other ways meet a relatively short deadline. Mr. Dulles is extremely pleased that you will be able to participate in this ceremony.

If you will give me a ring when you have returned to town I will arrange to have someone brief you on the details of the ceremony.

Thank you again, and I shall look forward to hearing from you within the next few days.

Sincerely,

/s/

L. K. White
